5. Entries must be made in the name of the person exhibiting.
All animals:
 - must be halter broke
 - steers must be dehorned
 - must have approved RFID tags.
 - may be subjected to a veterinary inspection
6. All exhibitors are required to have a fully completed manifest accompany the animals being transported to and from the show as required by Saskatchewan Ministry of Agriculture.
7. Exhibitors are required to bring their own feed.
8. All exhibitors must register at the Saskatchewan Beef Expo Show Office immediately upon arrival.
9. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to advise the Show Office of any cancellation of entries.
10. Exhibitors are encouraged to use a show harness for their numbers. Numbers will be allocated to exhibitors and must be worn in the show ring.
11. Participants in this competition will be provided with a program containing specific information on barn, show ring, wash rack regulations, special awards and other information.
12. Entrants and their exhibits shall come under the supervision and direction of the Saskatchewan Beef Expo Show Committee and shall observe all reasonable rules and regulations established by the Committee for the orderly conduct of the program.
13. Tampering with Livestock
 - a) Any surgical procedure or injection of any foreign substance or drug or the external application of any substance (irritant, counterirritant, or similar substance) which could affect the animal's performance or alter its natural contour, confirmation, or appearance, except external applications of substances to the hooves or horns of animals which affect appearance only and except for surgical procedures performed by a duly licensed veterinarian for the sole purpose of protecting the health of the animal, is prohibited.
 - b) The use of drenching, mechanical pumping devices, or other abnormal methods to administer water or fluids to animals will not be permitted, except for veterinarian approved treatments for dehydration.
14. The Saskatchewan Beef Expo Show reserves the right to decide on any point not covered in the rules and regulations and to make such changes in the prize list as are deemed necessary and in the best interest of the Show.
15. Competitors and their exhibits shall enter the competitions at their own risk.

16. The Saskatoon Prairieland Park Corporation, its Directors, Committee Members, Management or Employees shall not be responsible in any way for any injury to any person or for any loss of or damage to any property belonging to the Licensee or Renter or such other person or persons contracting herein for the use of property or premises of Saskatoon Prairieland Park Corporation, their invitees, licensees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors, affiliates, employees or workmen, while such person or property is in or about the premises, or any roadways, platforms or corridors in connection therewith, including (without limiting the foregoing) any loss of or damage to any property caused by theft or breakage, or by steam, water, rain or snow which may leak into, issue or flow from any part of the premises or any adjacent or neighboring land or from the water, steam or drainage pipes or plumbing works thereof or from any other place or corridor or for any loss or damage caused by or attributable to the condition or arrangement of any electric or other wiring or for any other loss whatsoever arising out of the occupancy of the premises or any operations or activities conducted therein by such persons as aforesaid; and the Renter or Licensee and such other person or persons contracting herein for the use of property or premises of Saskatoon Prairieland Park Corporation covenants to indemnify the Saskatoon Prairieland Park Corporation, its Directors, Committee Members, Management or Employees against all loss, cost, claims, or demands in respect of any injuries, loss or damage referred to in this paragraph.
17. Any entrant or exhibitor may be required by the Saskatoon Prairieland Park Corporation to make a statutory declaration that the exhibits entered are shown in accordance with the rules and regulations governing the show. Should any exhibitor refuse to make such declaration on being requested, he or she will forfeit premiums awarded on the entry in doubt.
18. Any person who shall attempt to interfere with or influence the judge/s while in the discharge of their duties, or shall at any time, on the premises of the Saskatoon Prairieland Park Corporation, use any contemptuous or abusive language to any judge, or within his hearing, in consequence of any award made by him, or any exhibitor refusing to accept any award made by a judge, shall forfeit his right to any premiums to which he might otherwise be entitled. Judges are particularly requested to report any breach of this rule.
19. Judges will award prizes only to deserving exhibits; where there is no competition, the judge shall decide whether the exhibit entered is entitled to the first or any other prize.
20. When respectfully requested to do so, the judges may give the reason for their decisions.
21. All entries must be on the printed forms supplied for that purpose. The particulars called for on the entry form must be fully and correctly supplied and written in clear, legible writing or type-written and properly signed by the exhibitor or his duly authorized agent.
22. Prize money will be presented at the Show Office.
23. Any entrant or exhibitor, by act of making entry, exhibiting or occupying any space on the Saskatoon Prairieland Park Corporation grounds, agrees to the rules and regulations printed herein.
24. We encourage parents to work with their children, not just do the work for them. Adults and parents must keep in mind that this is an educational opportunity for the participants of the show and therefore limited parental involvement is encouraged.
